

Experts and Speakers

Presentations to community groups cover family, parenting and relationship issues including self-esteem, grief and loss, conflict resolution and more. Specialized topics customized to the needs and interests of diverse audiences are also available. For more information or to schedule a speaker for an event, please contact our Director of Communications at 317-644-7221

Share

|